Dear Ron:

It is always an encouragement to know that men with your spiritual perception and unique service have been touched by a message from me. I feel very deeply the need for total sincerity, not only in heart but in act, which your life has demonstrated concerning mission work.

I am happy to learn of your continued training at A.C.C. and know that your life will be an even more effective instrument for good in the years ahead. Thank you so much for writing and may God bless us all in every dedicated effort at world evangelism.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
